

Histological tumour grade (Non-core)

The grade in thyroid carcinomas of follicular cell origin (including both papillary and follicular carcinoma) impacts outcome significantly. It can however, be deduced from the histologic type along with increased mitotic activity and tumour necrosis, therefore this item is designated as non-core.